

3 CHARACTERS AND A REINDEER

Ebenezer Scrooge

- 'Pre-ghost visits' Scrooge represents our unawareness of our Divine Nature. Our unenlightened ego keeps us focused on materialism, self-centeredness, and fear.
- 'Post-ghost visits' Scrooge represents our Enlightened Awareness of the Truth of who we really are, and opens us to joy, giving, and wonder.
- Ghost of Christmas Past: Make peace with your past and appreciate it for the traditional foundations it provides.
- Ghost of Christmas Present: Savor the present moment and claim its joys!
- Ghost of Christmas Yet to Come: Know you are Divinely Ordering your future with every choice you make!

Frosty the Snowman

- Frosty represents being animated by our Divine Nature.
- Frosty also symbolizes pure JOY of our vibrant skin school experience.

Release worry about the future and focus on NOW.

Recognize the True Source: It's not in your hat; it's in your heart!

Reaffirm JOY, no matter what!

Bonus: You don't ever need to experience a "Melt Down" because there's no separation between your human nature and your Divine Nature!

Santa Claus

- A Giving Consciousness is the true Santa Claus of us.
- The selfless giving, highly altruistic, paying-it-forward, down-to-earth Santa Claus is our I AM Nature.
- The "Santa" of us is giving personified. We have the power to draw anything we want from the Field of Infinite Potential and use it—by right of Consciousness—to improve our lives and the lives of others!

Give unconditionally of your time, your gifts, and your money!

Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer

- Rudolph represents our awakened consciousness of being spiritual beings having a human experience.
- Santa represents our I AM Nature which encourages us to let our light shine to bring peace and healing to the world.
- The Sleigh stands for our positive, giving state of consciousness which is our vehicle for unlimited prosperity and abundance.
- Rudolph's lighted nose tells us to follow our higher intuitive instincts. (Clairalience—advanced smelling; psychic perception)

Reframe your greatest challenge into your greatest gift!

Recognize you are unique and beautiful.

Realize you are a light that can shine through the fog of confusion, bringing warmth and joy to the world.
